

Center for Executive Development (CED)

Transforming Lives and Careers

The executive education arm of the University of Dubai, CED, designs and delivers executive management development programs and internationally-accredited professional certifications for a variety of organizations, both public and private.

CED PROGRAM OFFERINGS:

- Certificate & Diploma Qualifications in Procurement & Supply from UK
- Certified CBP Qualifications in Leadership; Customer Service; Sales; Business Etiquette & Business Communication from US
- Professional Diploma in Human Resource Management accredited by KHDA

- Open Management Programs: Two to five days Executive Development programs for working professionals. These offerings provide practical skills and learning for career progression.
- Customized Management Programs: These programs are tailor-made to meet the organization's specific needs and can be delivered on site or off site.

All programs are delivered by leading practicing professionals and learning experience in class is enhanced by group discussions, interactive exercises, case studies and simulations.

Testimonials and Comments CED Programs

"The course was excellent. We learned a lot more than we expected and the content was very relevant to real life situations. The instructor and the methodology were outstanding."

Nasser Al Madani

Assistant Director General, Dubai Airport Free Zone (DAFZ)

"The learning at CED was very useful; even more useful to me than my MBA because of its focus on my profession."

Navaneeth Krishnan (MCIPS)

Purchase Manager, Concrete Technology LLC.

"Today, I'm proud and confident that I can serve my clients better than before, thanks to the CIPS training I received at CED."

Althaf Hussain

SCM & eAM Functional Consultant, Al Ghurair Group

"The experienced trainers and professionals provide the latest industry knowledge about relevant subjects and add a lot of value to the training."

Syed Zahid Hasan

Head of Purchasing, Dragon Oil Ltd.

"The training enabled me to put together a professional business plan. My business proposal to set up Skin Ethics in 5-star international resorts has been accepted by Best Western Hotels and also the Vedic Village Resorts in India."

Janis M. Jones

Skin Care Consultant/Educator/Entrepreneur
