

Verbs Review

Name	Form	Time Words	Use	Examples
Simple Present	V1 V1 +s special verbs: is, are, am, has, have, do does, go, goes	always, often, usually, sometimes, rarely every day, week, year on Mondays, weekends in the mornings, evenings, afternoons	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To describe routines in the present To say facts 	I always go to the gym after work. In the evenings, she cooks dinner and watches TV. Sometimes, we have an exam on Thursday.
Present Continuous	am is + V1 + ing are	now, right now, currently, just now, at the moment	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> something happening now 	She is going to the store now. Right now, we are reviewing for the CGE. At the moment, I am eating ice cream.
Simple past	V1 + ed V2	Last week, year, month yesterday, ago in 1990	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> something complete/finished 	I went to the pool last week. We played games last time she was at my house.
Present Perfect	have + V3 has	since for ever just yet never already	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> something that began in the past and still is happening experiences with out specific time 	She has lived in the UAE since 2002. We have spoken English for 10 years.

		up to now recently
Future	will + V1 am is + going to are	next week, month, year... tomorrow in the future soon, very soon in 3 days	something that will happen in the future	I will see my brother next weekend in Dubai. I am going to the mall tomorrow.
Passive Voice	is are + V3 was were	by	Used to talk about inventions, general truths, etc.	The iPad was invented by Apple. Arabs are known for having big families.