New Students Orientation Program
Spring 2021-2022
Wednesday, January 26th, 2022
Conference Room- UC Building

INTRODUCTION

The new students' orientation program is meant to prepare new students for the transition to the university life. It is an interesting program that provides the chance to the new students to meet the existing students and gain knowledge from their experience at UD in particular and the University life in general. The orientation also provides a very rich and informative presentation on Transition, University life and all UD departments.

Your university experience at UD begins with the orientation!
