BYLAWS AND APPENDICES OF THE UNIVERSITY OF DUBAI STUDENTS' UNION

The aim of the University of Dubai Student Union Bylaws is to provide a reference document that includes how the student body of the University of Dubai shall be organized and how it shall operate. It also acts as a point of clarity for any activities, queries or issues that may arise as part of their day-to-day operations.

Article 1: Elections

The DSS shall conduct the general election of the President, Vice-President, Treasurer and Secretary at the end of the Spring semester, if not latest in the beginning of Fall Semester.

- (a) The Top 4 (President, Vice-President, Treasurer and Secretary) of the UDSU shall run as a single non-splitting ticket (team).
- (b) The college representatives shall be nominated by the UDSU and approved by DSS and the Dean of each college before the end of the spring semester or up to four weeks after the fall semester starts.
- (c) The Officers shall be appointed by the Top 4 and approved by the DSS. These nominations shall be organized two weeks after the election of the Top 4 or latest, two weeks after the fall semester starts. The selection process will be in form of an interview and a review of Curriculum Vitae of the individual candidates. The candidates receiving a majority of votes will be appointed as UDSU Officers.
- (d) Students can only run for one position during each election.
- (e) The appointment and handover date for the Cabinet members shall be during the end of Spring, if not, in the beginning of the fall semester.
- (f) Once elected, the Cabinet members shall take office and start their duties by the start of the next academic year.

1.1 Before Elections

The DSS Representative who oversees the elections shall:

- (a) Prepare the forms and coordinate the confirmation of candidate's applications including student name, ID number, desired position and to ensure that elections follow a fair process.
- (b) Ensure that all candidates meet and maintain the criteria and qualification requirements.
- (c) Shall post date and time of the elections.

1.2 Qualification Requirements

- (b) The Elections will be the responsibility of the DSS staff, which will inform the students through email about the elections' process.

1.6 Penalties

Any failure to abide by any rule included in the Constitution and/or Bylaws will result in penalties to be imposed by the UD management.

- a) Any candidate or person who uses an ID that is not his/hers when voting shall be immediately expelled from the election.
- b) Any candidate who attempts to tamper with any or all voting mechanisms will be sanctioned.
- c) Penalties goes from a verbal warning to an expulsion of the UD based on the severity of the case.
- d) Any candidate or team campaigning wishing to appeal a penalty must do it in writing and submit it within twenty-four hours. The DSS will announce its decision within ten college days.

1.7 Elections' Results

Votes will be counted and announced immediately following the closing of the elections by the DSS representative.

- (a) The team, composed by the President, Vice-President, Treasurer and Secretary who received the highest number of votes shall be elected. In case of a tie, a run-off election shall be held by the DSS to break the tie.

- (b) Results will be final unless the DSS receive an appeal of elections results.
- (c) DSS Representative shall announce the result to all UD students once the results are official.
- (d) In the case only one team is running, the team wins the election by default. The orientation shall be conducted, but the vote and campaign will be cancelled.

1.8 Appeal on Election Results

Once declared by the DSS Representative, the results of the elections shall be considered valid unless an appeal is filed in writing within two working days of the date of voting. Any appeal must clearly state the grounds for such a complaint with proper evidence. Procedures shall respect the right for notice, hearing and time constraints. The DSS will announce its decision within five working days.

1.9 Anticipated Elections

An anticipated election will only happen in the case of the elected President, Vice-President, Treasurer and or Secretary resign or are removed. Anticipated elections will follow the exact same process than usual elections.

Article 2: Allocating Resources

To enable effective financial planning, the Cabinet shall determine a set of aims and objectives for the UDSU activity for the academic year.

If the UDSU is planning an extraordinary event or has shown an exemplary track record, an application for further funding can be made. It will be evaluated, then a decision will be given by the DSS.

The Treasurer shall be responsible for the financial matters of the UDSU, and the Vice-President shall exercise supervision over all the UDSU finances subject to the decisions of the Cabinet.

- (a) The income of the UDSU will comprise of a variable percentage of an annual endowment based on student activities fee by the University upon application, together with additional revenue raised by the UDSU and the contributions made from the University itself.
- (b) The Treasurer shall present audited accounts to the DSS. The accounts shall be audited by the University's Finance Department.
- (c) The account shall include details of any subscriptions, fees or donations made by any affiliated internal or external organizations. The names of these organizations and the data of their key contact shall also be stated.
- (d) Provisional budget should be given to the DSS two weeks after their election or before the end of the spring semester.
